SECOND CALL FOR PAPERS

ICORR '07

10TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON REHABILITATION ROBOTICS

WELCOME

In the summer of 2007 the 10th edition of the International Conference on Rehabilitation Robotics (ICORR 2007) will take place in the Netherlands. ICORR 2007 will highlight the most recent advances in rehabilitation robotics and their relevance to end users. To emphasize this focus, the theme of the conference is "Robots care!"

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

The program for ICORR 2007 will bring both the basic sciences of rehabilitation robotics, novel designs, their employment in clinical trials and case studies, and their relevance to end users. The conference will be focused on, but not limited to, the following topics:

- Assistive robotics
- Therapy robotics
- Orthoses and exoskeletons
- User interfaces and (brain) control
- Socially interactive robotics
- Robotic environments and companions
- Evaluation and user experience
- Biorobotics and biomimetics

The program consists of different types of presentations, some of them new to this conference: Plenary lectures, Podium presentations, Interactive presentations, Laboratory presentations, User Forums, and also Special Sessions preceding the conference. Information on these exciting conference elements is available on the ICORR 2007 website. Participants are invited to submit full papers for peer review on the subjects of their interest. Instructions for authors are available on the ICORR 2007 website.

ANNIVERSARY SYMPOSIUM: ROADMAP

To celebrate the 10th anniversary a special symposium will be held in combination with the conference, dedicated to formulating a research roadmap on fundamental issues and future research directions. Information is available on the ICORR 2007 website. If you are interested in participating, please contact the conference chairs at chair@icorr2007.org

LOCATION AND VENUE

The ICORR 2007 conference venue will be Noordwijk aan Zee ('Beach of Amsterdam'), close to Amsterdam and Schiphol international airport.
